Dear Classmate,

We want to see you at our 60th Stanford Reunion, just two months away, October 4–7. If you haven't made up your mind, please take a look at the incredible range of events described in this mailing, as well as a peek at a list of our classmates who are planning to attend. Here's why we, especially, don't want you to miss out:

- Our year. 1952. In many ways, it seems like just yesterday. Come October, our classmates, dormmates, teammates and you-name-it 'mates will be together again on campus, catching up beneath the palm trees and perhaps taking in the view atop Hoover Tower.
- Our weekend. It'll be an unforgettable weekend designed just for us: thought-provoking talks with top professors, plus our Class Party, Class Tailgate, Mini-Reunions and more!
- Our reunion. Above all, it's about reuniting with one another and with the place that brought us all together 60 years ago. Whether you come for a single day or the entire weekend, there are so many Reunion memories waiting to be made.

We sincerely hope you can join us back at the Farm—it simply won't be the same without you.

Class of '52 Solos Gathering
Before Dinner on the Quad

Thursday, October 4

6:15–6:30 p.m.

Attending reunion solo? You're not alone! Meet up with fellow solos during cocktail hour before heading into Dinner on the Quad for seating together. If you'd like to be part of the solos group, please contact Margaret Gairdner Snow at msnownh@aol.com or (650) 725-0685.

Class of '52 Panel on Longevity
Friday, October 5

1:15–2:45 p.m.

Improved longevity is both a remarkable achievement and one of society's greatest challenges. Grab a seat as top experts from the Stanford Center on Longevity share how they're working to solve the problems of those over 50 and improve the well-being of people of all ages.

Class of '52 60th Reunion Party
Friday, October 5

6:30–10:30 p.m.

Don your party clothes for a lovely evening of appetizers, hosted cocktails and three-course dinner at the Quadrus Conference Center. Reminisce with your class while enjoying a sweeping view of Stanford and Silicon Valley. A live pianist will play standards from the '40s and '50s on the grand piano. Seating is open; Mini-Reunion groups may send a representative to arrive at 6:15 p.m. to claim place cards at the door and reserve a table of 10. Don't miss one of the highlights of the weekend!

Class of '52 Tailgate

Saturday, October 6

Noon–4:30 p.m.

A reunion tradition! Before the Stanford vs. Arizona football game, join your '52 classmates for an outdoor meal, hosted bar and entertainment by the roving Stanford Band and a cappella groups. Go Cardinal!

Class of '52 Mini-Reunions:
Reconnect with those who knew you best!

Mini-Reunions (of dorms, fraternities, sports teams) will take place at various times throughout the weekend. We recommend gathering at the Friday night Class Party or our Class Headquarters Tent at the Saturday tailgate, from 2:00–4:30 p.m. A table(s) can be reserved for your group with signage.

Find out about Mini-Reunions already in the works, and learn how to organize your own, online at alu.ms/classof52 or contact the Stanford Alumni Association at (650) 725-0685. The deadline for requesting a Mini-Reunion contact list is August 31.

Class of '52 Parking and Transportation

Throughout Reunion Homecoming, you'll have access to a special 50th Plus reunion parking lot and shuttle buses and golf carts to transport you around campus. If you require additional assistance with mobility around campus, please contact the Diversity and Access Office by September 20, at (650) 725-0326 or email disability.access@stanford.edu.

STANFORD REUNION HOMECOMING, OCTOBER 4-7, 2012

Please return this form by the September 20, 2012 postmark deadline or register online at alumni.stanford.edu/goto/reunionreg.

Please update your contact information if different than listed above.

Special Assistance & Disability Resources

Disability parking spaces are located throughout campus and are reserved for vehicles displaying any state-issued disability placards or license plates. Vehicles with disability placards or plates may also park in any other marked spaces on campus, including permit and metered spaces. In addition, several staffed golf carts will be available throughout the weekend to help transport guests with mobility impairments.

If you need a disability related accommodation, please contact the Diversity and Access Office by September 20 at (650) 725-0326 or by email, disability.access@stanford.edu.

Reunion Homecoming Costs

Reunion Homecoming aims to reconnect as many alumni as possible with each other and to reacquaint them with Stanford. With that goal in mind, the Stanford Alumni Association (SAA) works diligently to keep production costs to a minimum in order to maximize alumni attendance and participation. By registering early, you'll help us provide the most cost effective program. SAA and Stanford provide a significant subsidy to Reunion Homecoming. Headquarters tents, facility and maintenance fees, audiovisual equipment and services, transportation and Class Books are just a few of the program elements underwritten.

Parking and Transportation

Parking has been reserved in Galvez Field located at the corner of Campus Drive and Galvez Street. During peak hours, Reunion Homecoming shuttles will be available to transport you around campus.

Please Note

By registering for Reunion Homecoming, all registrants understand that their photographic or video images may appear in future Stanford marketing materials, in print and/or online.

Membership Benefits

If you are a current member of the Stanford Alumni Association (as indicated above), thank you very much for your support! Your membership dollars help to support SAA's programs, including Stanford magazine and Reunion Homecoming.

Not yet a member? You can join today and begin supporting these popular activities. As a member, you'll also receive valuable benefits such as free access to thousands of searchable publications through four online databases.

Plus, join using this form and you'll receive a $50 discount off the regular cost of a lifetime membership.

Your Reunion.

Stanford Reunion Homecoming is all yours.

Think of it as your personal blend of Stanford memories and moments. It's your classroom and your campus. It's your classmates and your friends. It's your then, your now and your new. It's everything you want it to be (and nothing you don't). It's your Stanford.

Reconnect with classmates at your Class Party, Tailgate and Mini-Reunions. Reinvigorate your mind in Classes Without Quizzes, at the Roundtable and President's Panel. Rediscover campus with a behind-the-scenes tour. Head to your favorite campus spot for a quiet moment alone or take your friends and family along to turn up the volume—and create new memories.

Do as much or as little as you'd like. The choice is yours. Turn the pages to find more than 150 ways you can make Reunion your own.

Special Assistance & Disability Resources

Disability parking spaces are located throughout campus and are reserved for vehicles displaying any state-issued disability placards or license plates. Vehicles with disability placards or plates may also park in any other marked spaces on campus, including permit and metered spaces. In addition, several staffed golf carts will be available throughout the weekend to help transport guests with mobility impairments.

If you need a disability related accommodation, please contact the Diversity and Access Office by September 20 at (650) 725-0326 or by email, disability.access@stanford.edu.

Parking and Transportation

Parking has been reserved in Galvez Field located at the corner of Campus Drive and Galvez Street. During peak hours, Reunion Homecoming shuttles will be available to transport you around campus.

Reunion Homecoming Costs

Reunion Homecoming aims to reconnect as many alumni as possible with each other and to reacquaint them with Stanford. With that goal in mind, the Stanford Alumni Association (SAA) works diligently to keep production costs to a minimum in order to maximize alumni attendance and participation. By registering early, you'll help us provide the most cost effective program. SAA and Stanford provide a significant subsidy to Reunion Homecoming. Headquarters tents, facility and maintenance fees, audiovisual equipment and services, transportation and Class Books are just a few of the program elements underwritten.

Please Note

By registering for Reunion Homecoming, all registrants understand that their photographic or video images may appear in future Stanford marketing materials, in print and/or online.
