

CLASS OF 1955

STANFORD REUNION HOMECOMING WEEKEND: OCTOBER 21-24, 2010

Dear Classmate,

Our 55th Reunion is October 21-24, just two months away. If you're planning to come, you can stop reading this letter and go right to the enclosed registration form. We can't wait to see you!

If you haven't made up your mind, take a look at the incredible range of activities, events and academic programs detailed in the enclosed registration guide. You'll see that attending Reunion Homecoming Weekend offers something for everyone.

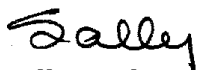

Feed your brain with a staggering variety of intellectual programs including the more than 40 Classes Without Quizzes taught by Stanford faculty and the Roundtable at Stanford University moderated by Tom Brokaw. Catch up with old friends and make news ones at our Class Party taking place Friday night at MacArthur Park, Mini-Reunions, Class Lunches and Class Tailgate. Or you can join classmates at our Class Panel as classmate David Bragg leads a discussion with former Secretary of Defense Professor William Perry, '49, and The Honorable Carla Hills, '55, former U.S. Trade Representative.

Wonder who else will be there? Peruse the enclosed Look Who's Coming list, and you're likely to see a number of old friends and acquaintances who've already told us they plan to attend.

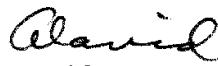

Don't worry if you haven't kept in touch with classmates Reunion Homecoming provides plenty of opportunities to revive forgotten connections and forge new friendships with people who share your current interests.

Opportunities to reconnect with this lively and interesting bunch don't come along very often, and everyone who attends adds to the richness of the experience for all. Even if you can't come for the entire weekend, plan to visit for just a day or two. You'll be glad you did!

Sincerely,

Sally Suchart Baumgartner
