You have just been accepted to join the Stanford Class of 1980 30th Reunion in October 2010.

Why?
We want you because it’s been thirty years since you graduated and it’s time to come back and celebrate.

“This Is It” – Kenny Loggins
The waiting is over, no, don’t you run. No way to hide. No time for wonderin’ why. Just come join us for the Class of 1980 30th Reunion Celebration. It’s here and you won’t want to miss it.

“I Can’t Tell You Why” – Eagles
Is it all coming back to you, piercing the fog that is obscuring your wonderful Stanford memories? We know you will have a great time reunion weekend. That is why, unlike the Eagles, we can tell you why to join us and build more wonderful Stanford memories.

“He’s So Shy” – The Pointer Sisters
He’s so shy...but don’t you be. We are doing everything we can to make sure you don’t miss this chance to reconnect with your friends and classmates from the Class of 1980. Don’t wait. Sit down now and register to join us and don’t be “shy.”

“Against the Wind” – Bob Seger & the Silver Bullet Band
It seems like yesterday but it was long ago. We were young and strong, we were runnin’ against the wind. And maybe we still are but don’t let that stop you from coming to your one and only 30th reunion. So, go against the wind and commit to a weekend of fun, frolic and friendship at Stanford.

“Call Me” – Blondie
Call me, call me on the line, call me, call me any, anytime. We know what you’re up against. Deadlines, obligations, airline schedules...If you have any questions or concerns, call us. Or use one of the many technological advances we have seen since 1980 – email.

And last but not least...

“All Right Now” – Free (or the Stanford Band)
Come and join us because it’s all right now, baby it’s all right now!
